

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for those personnel who work at height and will be responsible for erecting, moving and dismantling mobile towers.

Course Aim and Content

On completion of the course operators will be able to list their responsibilities under the relevant legislation and demonstrate their knowledge

- Health and Safety at Work Act 1974
- Management of the Health and Safety at Work Regulations
- Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998
- Working at Height Regulations 2005
- What are the Hazards
- Risk Assessment and Safe System of Work
- Understand the manufacturer's Instructions and Handbook
- Mobile Tower Selection
- Site Selection
- Pre use check of the equipment
- Erecting the Mobile Tower
- Movement of the Mobile Tower
- Dismantling the Mobile Tower
- Storage arrangements
- Transportation requirements
- Rescue plans
- Theoretical Examination

Training and Testing Methods

A high proportion of Theory and Practical Demonstrations followed by tests.

Course Accredited by

NPORS or Small Training Solutions Certified

