

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for those personnel who will be employed as a vehicle banksman and responsible for reversing vehicles in the workplace.

Course Aim and Content

On completion of the course operators will be able to list their responsibilities under the relevant legislation and demonstrate the new skill that has been taught.

- Health and Safety at Work Act 1974
- Management of the Health and Safety at Work Regulations
- What are the hazards
- Risk Assessment and Safe System of Work
- HSG 136
- L64 Safety Signs and Signals
- Different types of vehicles and their blind spots
- Introducing the driver to the site
- Site rules and procedures
- Reversing
- Key policy

Training and Testing Methods

A high proportion of both theory and practical exercises, this is followed by tests of theory knowledge and practical demonstrations.

Course Accredited by

RTITB, NPORS or Small Training Solutions Certified

